✧ PROGRAMME. ✧

1 March ... "The New Colonial" ... Hall

2 Overture ... "Zampa" ... Harold

L. G. F. Harold was born in Paris in 1791, entered the Conservatoire in 1806, and won the Prix de Rome 1812. His proved to be a successful operatic career, and lasted practically till his death in 1833. This overture is more in the nature of a selection from melodies in the opera than an overture in its true sense.

3 Cornet Solo "I sing thee songs of Araby" ... Clay

Soloist: Mr. J. BRABEN.

4 Selection ... "Satanella" ... Balfe

(By desire).

INTERVAL.

5 Morceau ... "The Whistler and his Dog" ... Prior

6 Selection ... "Saffo" ... Pincini

(By desire).

The above selection was the Test Piece at Earls Court Exhibition 1906 when the Band gained the Fourth Prize.

7 Euphonium Solo "The Toreadors Song from Carmen" Bizet

Soloist: Mr. E. ACERS.
